that the Ambassador was now leaving the government service.

Ambassador Nolting thanked the Chairman and the Board for their cooperation. He commented that the study which he had done on the Middle East had been very reassuring in regard to both the competence and the accomplishments of the intelligence community. He said that he had flagged certain problems in his study, but that firm overall recommendations should await the completion of similar studies on other areas.

Mr. Hughes commented that the people concerned in the Bureau of Intelligence and Research were also very pleased to have the Ambassador's report on the Middle East, and said that he was sure that Secretary of State Rusk would read it with great interest.

7. Introduction of Ambassador
Murat Williams

Mr. Hughes then introduced Ambassador Murat Williams to the Board members and announced that the Ambassador was replacing Mr. Joseph Scott as Deputy Director for Coordination of the Bureau of Intelligence and Research. On behalf of the Board, Mr. McCone welcomed Ambassador Williams to the meeting.
